- 01 THE PHONY KING OF ENGLAND
Core Arts/6pm till late/free
Four rebellious souls making a dubbed-up punk howl for the end times. Sounding like The Small faces meets the Ruts. Lyrical gymnasts from South London with brutal little truths to tell, delivered with razor sharp wit and tongue wedged firmly in cheek. Featuring on guitar Craig Shaw of red hot Rockabilly outfit, The Excellos plus special guest performers, MC's and poets
- 7 STEVE McCANN, PAINTINGS AND DRAWINGS
Core Arts/5.30pm - 9pm/free
"I don't know how you do it" said Leon Kossoff in a recent letter to Hackney artist Steve McCann. Tribute indeed for this prolific painter who's live-in studio serves as a window onto the changing local vista that is his inspiration. Urban landscapes and intense portrait studies made with densely sculpted paint capture each subject's underlying gravity.

- 06 THE LUCKY STRIKES
Core Arts/6 pm till late/free
An amalgam of 'Exile On Main Street' era Rolling Stones and The Black Keys at their loudest. Raucous, Rock 'n' Roll with a thumping Blues heart beat. Raw 'Rod & The Faces' inspired vocals enhanced with Appalachian style fiddle and banjo, taking Americana to a new level. Touring their new album ' Gabriel Forgive My 22 Sins' plus special guest performers, MC' s and poets
