

BERNIE PLASTIRAS '23

BP

BERNIE PLASTIRAS WAS BORN IN LAMBETH IN 1970 TO GREEK CYPRIOT PARENTS. HE HAS ALWAYS LIVED IN LONDON.

BERNIE HAS CONSTANTLY DEVELOPED HIS CREATIVE SIDE, ESPECIALLY IN WRITING SONGS AND PLAYING MUSIC. HE STARTED DOING SLOGANS BECAUSE HE THOUGHT HE COULD NOT DRAW, UNTIL HE REALISED THAT AUDIENCES LOVED THEM.

JOHN LENNON HAS BEEN HIS INSPIRATION AFTER SEEING THE HAIR & PEACE, AND BED & PEACE SLOGANS ON THE TV WHEN HE WAS YOUNG AND HE KEPT THE PICTURE ON THE WALL TO THIS DAY. HE TAKES HIS WORDS FROM HIS SONG WRITING SKILLS, AND SOMETIMES HIS HERO'S.

"I AM GRATEFUL TO CORE ARTS FOR THIS OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW MY WORK TO A LARGE AUDIENCE, AND HAVE A CATALOGUE PRINTED."

A close-up photograph of a head of green lettuce, showing the texture of the leaves. Overlaid on the center is a hand-drawn graphic. The word "LETTUCE" is written in large, green, block letters with a white outline, and the word "PRAY" is written below it in large, red, block letters with a white outline. Both words are set against a background of blue, scribbled lines that form a rectangular frame. A small, colorful ladybug is drawn on the letter "C" of "LETTUCE".
